R E P O R T .

THE Council of the Zoological and Acclimatisation Society of Victoria has the honor to submit its Twenty-first Annual Report to the Subscribers.

During the past year the Society has become an incorporated body, having successfully carried a bill through Parliament during the last session for that purpose; this places the Society on a much more secure and satisfactory footing, as its by-laws can now be enforced, and the Act empowers the Society to borrow a sum of money on the security of its income not exceeding £10,000, for the improvement of the Gardens.

In June last the Assistant Director, Mr. Dudley Le Souef, was despatched to Singapore and the Malay States, principally for the purpose of procuring a Rhinoceros and a pair of Tapirs for the Zoological collection; he procured both, though at considerable expense, as the demand for these valuable animals for the Zoological Gardens of Europe is very great, and the prices asked and obtained by the native trappers are high in consequence.

The first Tapir, a very fine animal, reached Melbourne in September last by the S. S. Iolani, but it refused food and began to pine, and in spite of every care died in about five weeks after arrival. The second Tapir died at sea near Port Darwin, and the Rhinoceros in Mr. Le Souef's charge reached Sydney in safety and apparent good health; unfortunately he had there to tranship all the stock, and was detained for several days, the weather being both cold and wet; the day before he left Sydney the animal was attacked by acute inflammation, brought on by the great change in the temperature, and died in a few hours. The death of these valuable and expensive animals has been a considerable loss to the Society. Mr. Le Souef brought back a number of other specimens which have enriched the collection in a desirable direction, and the Gardens are now very attractive, the collection being larger and more valuable than it has ever been previously.

It is, however, much to be regretted that the number of paying visitors to the Gardens during the past year has been slightly below those of 1883, the numbers in that year being 79,541, as against 76,590 in 1884.

The Council attributes this falling off to the free Sunday, the attendance on that day continuing to increase, and is a most serious hindrance to the onward progress of the Society. The Council has no hesitation in affirming that had the Gardens been open only to subscribers on Sundays as in London, or a charge made as in Continental and American Gardens, this Society would now have taken its place among the leading Societies of the world, and the Gardens would have become infinitely more attractive than it is possible to make them under present conditions. It seems to the Council that if the present arrangement is to continue, the Government and Parliament should at least double the present grant of £1,500, as that sum is a most inadequate compensation to the Society for the immense crowds of visitors, estimated at over 200,000 annually, who visit the Gardens free on Sundays.

On September 8th last, the Brunswick and Coburg Railway line was opened, and gates were erected close to the Royal Park Station and duly advertised in the press, but after a trial of three months the receipts were found not to pay the gatekeeper's wages, and the gates have therefore been closed. Until the connection with Flinders Street is effected, these gates will only be opened on public holidays.

During the past year the improvements in the grounds have been steadily carried on. A building for Mammals has been erected containing six divisions. One of the large circular Aviaries has been rebuilt. A new Parrot House has been added, and many other minor additions and alterations.

If the Council decide on borrowing money to improve the grounds, some good buildings will be erected, among them a new Refreshment Room of a superior class, and a Band Stand.

The last Report stated that the Council was still in correspondence with the Hon. Howard Spensley on the subject of the importation of Herring Ova. Mr. Spensley has gone to considerable expense and much trouble to compass this matter, and in conjunction with Mr. Lalor, the Manager of the Brighton Aquarium, has experimented and endeavored in every way to retard the vitality of the Ova by cold sufficiently long to enable the spawn to be sent out, but up to the present time it is to be regretted that the experiments have completely failed. Several suitable streams have been stocked with Trout Fry during the past year from Ova procured from the Salmon Commissioners of Tasmania. The Society is also indebted to Sir Samuel Wilson through his agent, Mr. A Fiske, for the gift of nearly 400 Salmon Trout Fry, which were successfully placed in two suitable streams, tributaries of the Upper Yarra.

The Society continues its efforts to acclimatise Pheasants and other game birds at Gembrook; they are now spread over a considerable area, but they do not increase as quickly as could be wished, the great drawback in acclimatising birds throughout Victoria is the want of berry-bearing bushes. In New Zealand there are such in abundance, and game increases much more rapidly in consequence.

The Council has disposed of the Society's Ostriches to Mr C. M. Officer, M.P. The Council having no suitable land for Ostrich farming was unable to retain them with any prospect of success. It is however a matter of congratulation that the birds have fallen into such good hands. The Messrs. Officer have had charge of them for some years, and have already spent a large sum of money in developing the industry, and there is but little doubt that Ostrich farming will become an important matter in the future of the colony. There is no reason why selectors in the North and North Western portions of the colony should not adopt this industry to their own profit.

During the last session of Parliament a bill brought in by the Hon. D. Sterry, M.L.C., for the abolition of the Swivel Gun, was passed into law. The use of this cruel and destructive weapon was universally condemned throughout the colony.

The close season for Hares has lately been abolished, but the Hare is now so firmly established that it can well hold its own without protection.

Advantage was taken of Major-General Scratchley's visit to Melbourne to interest that gentleman in obtaining specimens of the Fauna of New Guinea for the Society's collection. General Scratchley, as her Majesty's Commissioner in New Guinea, will no doubt have many opportunities of assisting the Society's efforts in that direction.

The Council would, in conclusion, tender its best thanks to the retiring President, Mr. Moule, for his services during his term of office, and also to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. Purchas.

The Hon. Veterinary Surgeon, Mr. Kendall, has been most attentive to the health of the stock in the Gardens, and the Council begs to record its appreciation of his services.
